Some say that the winelands in South Africa are the most beautiful of any wine region. But one thing is for sure, the quality and style of the Cape's wines have undergone a dramatic revolution. They win dozens of awards at major international competitions and the country is poised to become the next big thing. It's an exciting time in its long history to experience the wines of South Africa.

ITINERARY | DAY 2

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 21ST - CONSTANTIA

10:00 am – Depart hotel

CAPE POINT VINEYARDS

With breath-taking views of the South Atlantic, Cape Point Vineyards sits on steep, seaward-facing slopes. Cooled by the ocean breeze, the winery focuses its attention on premium white wines. www.cpv.co.za

KLEIN CONSTANTIA

A historic and beautiful property that dates to 1685 and in 1982 revived the legendary Vin de Constance – one of the 18th and 19th centuries’ most coveted wines. A great taste of history that will include a gourmet picnic lunch in the vineyards. www.kleinconstantia.co.za

CONSTANTIA GLEN

Part of the original Simon van der Stel Constantia farm dating to the 17th century, the Waibel family converted this property into vineyards in 2000. Their wines, primarily based on Bordeaux classics of Merlot, Cabernet Franc, Sauvignon Blanc and Semillon are among the best in Constantia. Resting just below the Constantia Nek, we will enjoy a tasting of these excellent wines while enjoying the stunning view of the valley below. www.constantiaglen.com

7:30 pm – Winemakers’ Dinner at The Mount Nelson

After a full day of tasting, we will return to the Mount Nelson for a 3-course dinner in the Lord Nelson Dining Room. Joining us that evening will be a small group of leading South African winemakers who will present their wines as paired with our dinner.
