

LUXURY WINE TOUR TO BURGUNDY

The Best Domaines: The Best Producers

MAY 18TH – 22ND 2026

— Hosted by Charles Curtis, MW —

US $5,995 per person

This spectacular tour to the home of the world's finest Pinots and Chardonnays is unique in three ways:

The quality and variety of food and wine you will sample, with multiple Michelin-starred restaurants and numerous grand cru wines throughout the week

Starting off in Lyon, we cover it all, with an unparalleled range of visits and experiences in every sub-region from Beaujolais to Chablis, with an emphasis on the great domaines of the Côte d'Or.

Varied opportunities to explore the cultural and historical sites of Burgundy along the way.

COME AND DISCOVER

This is a sample itinerary. The final itinerary should be almost identical once the last wineries confirm.

BEAUJOLAIS & MÂCONNAIS: We begin our journey in the beautiful city of Lyon, culinary capital of France. Come a day early and explore the riches here before setting out. We will visit cutting edge Beaujolais producer Château Moulin-à-Vent to sample their unique single vineyard wines, followed by a Michelin-starred meal at l'O des Vignes and a visit to one of the stars Pouilly-Fuissé, the Château de Fuissé.

HISTORIC BEAUNE & POMMARD: We begin the next day with a walk to taste the exceptional wines in the historic Château de Beaune and its exceptional underground cellars, property of Bouchard Père & Fils. This is followed by another Michelin-starred lunch in town at Loiseau des Vignes, before heading to the magnificent Château de Pommard. We then return to Beaune for a visit to the unforgettable Hospices de Beaune and a walking tour of the old town that takes in the architecture (and shopping!) of historic Beaune

PULIGNY, MEURSAULT & GIVRY: The next day, we head off to Givry to the site of an ancient monastery at Clos du Cellier aux Moines, now restored to its 10th century glory and making some of the best wines in the region, before a decadent 3-course wine-pairing lunch at Olivier Leflaive in the heart of Puligny-Montrachet. We finish the day with the spectacular wines of Domaine de Montille in Meursault. These nights are free to explore the magnificent restaurants of Beaune that range from casual bistros to Michelin-starred palaces.

THE FINESSE OF CHABLIS: First visit is to William Fèvre for some first-rate Chablis, before a casual lunch at the charming Hostellerie des Clos with wines from the region's top producers. The afternoon takes us to the cellars at historic Domaine Laroche for a great tasting, right through to their finest Grands Crus. We return to Beaune for a fantastic 5-course dinner, with wines to match, at the Michelin-starred Hostellerie de Levernois.

NUITS-SAINT-GEORGES TO GEVREY: On the last day you'll finish with a bang, tasting wines worth the cost of the tour, beginning at Domaine de l'Arlot in Nuits-Saint-George before moving on to the hill of Corton and Comte Senard, with the most amazing hearty lunch of beef bourguignon washed down with 6 Grand Crus and followed by a vineyard stroll. We finish with a tasting at family-run Domaine Drouhin-Laroche to finish with more grand cru wines from Gevrey-Chambertin and surrounding villages. It's a bucket list experience of a lifetime.

ITINERARY | DAY 1

This is a sample itinerary. The final itinerary should be almost identical once the last wineries confirm.

MONDAY, MAY 18TH – LYON TO BEAUNE

9:45 AM - Depart for Lyon for Moulin-à-Vent

Meet with Charles in the reception of the Hotel Le Royal at 20 place Bellecour, 69002 Lyon and leave for Moulin-à Vent. The hotel is located in the heart of Lyon, between the Rhone and Saone rivers.

Meet at:

CHÂTEAU DU MOULIN-À-VENT

Beaujolais is a world apart, yet right next door to Burgundy. They are famous for their red wines made from the Gamay grape. At the top of the pyramid are the villages that bottle under their own name, known as the Beaujolais cru. Among the finest cru is Moulin-à-Vent, where perfectionist vignerons Edouard Parinet and Brice Laffond turn their ancient, organically-farmed vines into some of the region's best wines.

CHÂTEAU DE FUISSÉ

Heading north from Beaujolais we will enter the southernmost reaches of Burgundy where we will be welcomed to Château de Fuissé by the Vincent family, who have been here for 5 generations. Pouilly-Fuissé produces the ripest Chardonnay that you'll find in southern Burgundy, due to its wonderfully sunny position. We will be able to compare various wines from the property, including the Premier Cru 'Le Clos', which the Vincents own in its entirety. www.chateau-fuisse.fr

HOSTELLERIE LE CÈDRE

At around 5:30 pm we check into this 5-star hotel, which is one of the best in Burgundy. It is in the heart of Beaune but is quiet, elegant, and very comfortable. We will enjoy staying here for the four nights of the tour.

Tonight, we dine at the Hôtel de Beaune for a fun evening in the Bistro with classic, bourgeois cooking. It is famous for its Poulet de Bresse and naturally there'll be plenty of good wine to wash it down.

ITINERARY | DAY 2

TUESDAY, MAY 19TH – BEAUNE & POMMARD

10:00 am – Enjoy breakfast at the hotel and then we depart and walk to the cellars of none other than Joseph Drouhin.

BOUCHARD PÈRE ET FILS

A top-quality Burgundian merchant who has been around for over 3 centuries and 9 generations. They create over one hundred different wines ‘with the precision of a goldsmith,’ as they like to say. It is a delicate balance between nature and craftsmanship. They own over 130 hectares of their own vines throughout the Cote d’Or. We will visit the 15th century fortress of the Château de Beaune and have a magnificent tasting of both red and white wine. www.bouchard-pereetfils.com

CHÂTEAU DE POMMARD

This is a magnificent 18th century chateau, home to the famed Clos Marey-Monge vineyard. The appellation of Pommard is well-known for its Pinot Noir with more structure and depth than some of its neighbouring appellations. Château de Pommard is one of the leading properties in the appellation and their vineyards encompass 7 distinctly different soil types. The vineyard is also biodynamic and is tended by horses. You’ll taste a fabulous range of 6 wines; a discovery of how the soil and the vintage influence the flavour.

WALKING TOUR OF BEAUNE

You may have ventured out for dinner the night before and marveled at the historic buildings, but without a clue as to their history and significance. Charles will take you to see the places in Beaune that are important and will explain why. In particular, the Hospices, but of course he can’t help himself but show you his favorite cheese and wine shops too.

RETURN TO LE CÈDRE

After our visits in Beaune, tonight is a free evening to explore the cobblestoned streets and bistros of Beaune.

ITINERARY | DAY 3

WEDNESDAY, MAY 20TH – CÔTE CHALONNAISE and CÔTE DE BEAUNE

10:00 am – After a delicious breakfast (always included) we depart the hotel - not too early.

CLOS DU CELLIER AUX MOINES

Former LVMH president Philippe Pascal and his wife have lovingly restored this ancient Cistercian monastery where vines have grown for nine centuries, turning it into one of the leading domaines in the entire Côte Chalonnaise region. Restored, replanted, and reborn as an organic and biodynamic winery, their sought-after wines are a beacon of luxury in this region known for its value. www.cellierauxmoines.com

OLIVIER LEFLAIVE

Our next stop is a tour of the vineyards and small towns of Meursault, Puligny and Chassagne before arriving at Leflaive in Puligny Montrachet. Olivier is one of the most famous winemakers in Burgundy, and frankly, in the world. I was fortunate enough to meet him and we established a relationship. After our visit we embark on a tasting menu extravaganza with seven fine wines from this great producer. It has been an icon in Burgundy since 1717. www.olivier-leflaive.com/en

DOMAINE DE MONTILLE

Château de Puligny was purchased by the Montille family in 2012. They have improved the property substantially, as one might have guessed, using biodynamic viticulture and a respect for biodiversity. Care in the vineyard is followed by attention to detail in the winery and the resulting wines have a great purity of flavor and elegance. We will have the pleasure of being welcomed by Brian Sieve, the cellar master, who has been at the domaine since 2012. www.demontille.com

Tonight is another free evening to explore the bistros of Beaune, or perhaps make a reservation at the Michelin-starred restaurant at Le Cèdre.

ITINERARY | DAY 4

THURSDAY, MAY 21ST – CHABLIS

09:30 a.m.– Enjoy a relaxed breakfast before we head off to Chablis at 09:30.

DOMAINE WILLIAM FÈVRE

We set off in search of some of the finest dry white wines in the world, in Chablis. Our visit to the region begins with one of the very top producers, William Fèvre. It has recently been taken over by the Rothschilds of Lafite, which gives you an idea of the quality. Apart from visiting and tasting some excellent wines at Fèvre, we will get an idea of the hills and slopes of Chablis, including the Grand Cru. www.williamfevre.fr

HOSTELLERIE DES CLOS

We will lunch at the charming Hostellerie which highlights local, seasonal cooking. They also have an extensive wine list so you won't be disappointed in the selection of both Chablis and reds from elsewhere in Burgundy. www.chablis-hotel.com/restaurant-burgundy

DOMAINE LAROCHE

By mid-afternoon, we make our way to the Domaine Laroche, which is one of the important players in Chablis. The history goes way back with an ancient monastery, called the Obédiencerie, in the middle of the property. Today they are very keen on sustainability both in the vineyards and in the winery. We'll see the cellars, have an explanation of the region, and taste a great selection of Chablis. By the time you're finished you'll be ready for a snooze on the return journey to Beaune. Rest up, we've a wonderful dinner to come. <https://www.larochewines.com/>

HOSTELLERIE DE LEVERNOIS

A ten-minute drive from our hotel will take us to dinner at the gastronomic restaurant of Levernois, with 1 Michelin star. For our last evening together we will launch into a magnificent 5-course meal, with perfectly matched wine. You won't be disappointed: this is top notch. www.levernois.com

ITINERARY | DAY 5

FRIDAY, MAY 22ND – CÔTE DE NUITS

09:30 am – Breakfast, check-out and depart hotel

Enjoy breakfast and then we must leave promptly, for we are invited for 10am at Chateau de la Tour.

DOMAINE DE L'ARLOT

Our journey through the Côte de Nuits begins with a visit to Domaine de l'Arlot in Nuits-St.-Georges. Domaine de l'Arlot is owned by the first class wine producer AXA, who also own Pichon Baron in Bordeaux, Noval in the Douro Valley, a property in Tokaji, and several others. Here we will learn about the soils, the appellations, the classifications, and how they all lead to a diverse range of extraordinary Pinots. This visit will be very educational, but you won't even realize it because of the casual style. www.arlot.com

DOMAINE COMTE SENARD

Following our first visit, it's time for one of the most classic and hearty lunches you will ever experience. When we come to Comte Senard it's like visiting family. We duck into some insanely small cellars dating to the 14th century where you have to keep your head low, and peek at bottles of old Burgundy, some of which may appear on the lunch table. We see their famous Clos des Meix Grand Cru vineyard, hear historical tales that change your outlook on life, admire the hill of Corton just behind us, and then sit down in the family-style dining room for a Burgundian feast of pâté and charcuterie, beef bourguignon, and far too many Grand Cru wines, both young and old. These are serious wines. www.domainesenard.com/en

DOMAINE DROUHIN-LAROZE

Fully sated from your hearty lunch, we wrap up the tour with our final visit at Domaine Drouhin-Laroze, a family domaine with 11.5 hectares of vineyards situated between Chambolle-Musigny and Gevrey-Chambertin. They have an enviable collection of 6 Grand Crus as well as an additional 4 Premier Crus within Gevrey-Chambertin. The wines are always elegant and gain sublime complexity over time in your cellar. A perfect finish to a fantastic week. www.drouhin-laroze.com

6:00 PM – TOUR ENDS

After a wonderful day, we will bring you to Dijon by 6:00 pm for guests who wish to catch a TGV, which is the fastest way to get to Paris, or elsewhere.
