CHÂTEAU DU MOULIN-À-VENT

Beaujolais is close to Lyon, but seems like a world away as we head up into the hills of this delightful wine country. The region is well-known for its fruity reds made from the Gamay grape. Some are light and easy, but the best “cru” produce rich complex wines highly prized by connoisseurs. Many consider that the finest cru is Moulin-à-Vent, where perfectionist vignerons Edouard Parinet and Brice Laffond tend their ancient, organically-farmed vines to produce the region’s most intense, long-lived wines. You will tour the estate, learn about the unique methods of producing Beaujolais, and then taste some of the region’s finest wines.

www.chateaudumoulinavent.com

L’O DES VIGNES

Heading north from Beaujolais we will enter the southernmost reaches of Burgundy. For our first lunch together, we have chosen this excellent small restaurant run by Sebastien Chambru, who has a Michelin star. He favors fresh, locally-sourced ingredients, and the food marries perfectly with the wines of the region.

www.lodesvignes.fr

CHÂTEAU DE FUISSÉ

After lunch, we will be welcomed to Château de Fuissé by the Vincent family, who have been here for 5 generations. Pouilly-Fuissé produces the ripest Chardonnay that you’ll find in southern Burgundy, due to its wonderfully sunny position. We will be able to compare various wines from the property, including the Premier Cru ‘Le Clos’, which the Vincents own in its entirety. www.chateau-fuisse.fr

HOSTELLERIE LE CÈDRE

At around 5:30 pm we check into this 5-star hotel, which is one of the best in Burgundy. It is in the heart of Beaune but is quiet, elegant, and very comfortable. We will enjoy staying here for the four nights of the tour.

www.cedrebeaune.com.

Tonight, we dine at the Hôtel de Beaune for a fun evening in the Bistro with classic, bourgeois cooking. It is famous for its Poulet de Bresse – considered to be one of the great chicken recipes of the world - and naturally there’ll be plenty of fine Burgundy to wash it down. ### TUESDAY, MAY 19TH – BEAUNE & POMMARD

10:00 am – Enjoy breakfast at the hotel and then we depart on foot to discover the historic Négociant cellars of Beaune.

BOUCHARD PÈRE ET FILS

Established over 3 centuries ago, Bouchard remains a family company, currently represented by the 9th generation of the original founders. They create over one hundred different wines ‘with the precision of a goldsmith,’ as they like to say. It is a delicate balance between nature and craftsmanship. They also own over 130 hectares of their own vines throughout the Cote d’Or. We will visit the 15th century fortress of the Château de Beaune and have an impressive tasting of both red and white wine. www.bouchard-pereetfils.com

L’OISEAU DES VIGNES

We walk to this well-known restaurant, a wine-focused bistro owned by Michelin-starred Groupe Bernard Loiseau. Monsieur Loiseau was one of France’s most famous 3 star chefs, and his memory lives on at this warm, convivial restaurant. www.bernard-loiseau.com/fr/loiseaudevignes

CHÂTEAU DE POMMARD

This is a magnificent 18th century chateau, home to the excellent Clos Marey-Monge vineyard. The appellation of Pommard is famous for a fuller, more structured style of Pinot Noir. Château de Pommard is one of the leading properties in the appellation and their vineyards encompass 7 distinctly different soil types. The vineyard is also biodynamic and is tended by horses. You’ll taste a fabulous range of wines to discover how the soil and the vintage influence the flavour. www.chateaudepommard.com

WALKING TOUR OF BEAUNE

The charm of historic Beaune beckons, and Charles will guide you to the places of the most cultural significance. He’ll also point out the highlights of shopping in Beaune, from wine and cheese to clothes and gifts. You will be able to explore the legendary Hospices de Beaune, walk the medieval ramparts, and fully appreciate the magic of this beautiful town.

RETURN TO LE CÈDRE

After our visits in Beaune, tonight is a free evening to explore the cobblestoned streets and bistros of Beaune.

Former LVMH president Philippe Pascal and his wife have lovingly restored this ancient Cistercian monastery where vines have grown for nine centuries, turning it into one of the leading domaines in the pretty Côte Chalonnaise region. Restored, replanted, and reborn as an organic and biodynamic winery, their sought-after wines – both reds and whites - are a beacon of luxury in this region known for value. www.cellierauxmoines.com

OLIVIER LEFLAIVE

After a scenic drive through the Chardonnay vineyards south of Beaune we arrive at Olivier Leflaive in Puligny-Montrachet. Olivier is one of the most famous winemakers in Burgundy, and frankly, in the world. He also owns a charming hotel and an excellent restaurant, where we will embark on a tasting menu extravaganza with seven fine wines from this great producer, as well as visiting some of his greatest vineyards. www.olivier-leflaive.com/en

DOMAINE DE MONTILLE

Etienne de Montille has taken over his family's historic domaine in the village of Volnay, aided by his right-hand man, cellar master Brian Sieve from America. Extraordinary care in the vineyard is followed by attention to detail in the winery and the resulting wines have a great purity of flavor and elegance. This has always been one of the higher profile estates in Burgundy, it is now making wines truly worthy of this reputation. www.demontille.com

Tonight is another free evening to explore the bistros of Beaune, or perhaps make a reservation at the Michelin-starred restaurant at Le Cèdre.

Domaine de l'Arlot is owned by the first-class wine producer AXA Millésimes, who also own Pichon Baron in Bordeaux and Quinta do Noval in the Douro Valley among others.
