Exploring the high-altitude vineyards and wineries of Mendoza

MARCH 21-26, 2027

Hosted by Evan Goldstein MS

US $5,995 per person
including US$250 booking administration fee

Come and join us on an epic adventure through the best vineyards and wineries of Argentina. Each day we will set out to visit some of the most famous names in the country, taste spectacular wines, and dine on delicious local cuisine, all with the stunning backdrop of the soaring Andes.

World-renowned for its magnificent Malbec, Argentina is praised for classic and modern styles of this signature variety along with other amazing wines made from Cabernet Sauvignon, Chardonnay, and more. Winemakers in Argentina endeavor to craft wines that reach heights as great as the surrounding mountains.

ITINERARY | DAY 1

MONDAY, MARCH 22ND - THE LEGENDS OF LUJÁN DE CUYO

9:45 AM – MEET GUIDES AND DEPART

Located in a valley just south of the city of Mendoza, Luján de Cuyo is home to some of the most famous names in Argentinean wine.

TASTING AT CHEVAL DES ANDES

This is a Bordeaux Grand Cru experience in the heart of Mendoza. Recognizing the potential of old-vine Cabernet and Malbec, Pierre Lurton of St.-Émilion's renowned Cheval Blanc was among the first Europeans to combine Argentina's New World character with French finesse. We visit with new winemaker, Pierre Polbos, as we tour their stunning new winery and taste a vertical of Cheval des Andes spanning some of their top vintages.

LUNCH AT ZONDA, LAGARDE WINERY

Founded in 1897, the Pescarmona family acquired Lagarde in 1969, establishing a legacy of high-end winemaking. Today, Sofia and Lucila Pescarmona, the third generation, lead this charming traditional winery in the heart of Luján de Cuyo. Enjoy a Michelin-star dining experience at Zonda restaurant that showcases Lagarde's exceptional wines. It is one of only five Michelin-starred restaurants in Mendoza and this promises to be a long, lingering gourmet affair, followed by a tour of the winery and gardens.

ITINERARY | DAY 2

TUESDAY, MARCH 23RD – REACHING THE HEIGHTS OF THE UCO VALLEY

9:30 AM – MEET GUIDES AND DEPART

We check out of the Park Hyatt Mendoza to make our way to the Uco Valley, our home for the next two nights, stopping off at legendary wineries along the way.

ALTO LAS HORMIGAS – EL JARDÍN ALTAMIRA

Founded in 1995 by famed Italian winemaker Alberto Antonini, Alto las Hormigas was one of the first wineries to champion a more restrained, terroir-driven style of Argentine Malbec. Their work helped to establish Paraje Altamira as one of the country's most renowned sub-regions. We'll meet at El Jardín Altamira, their flagship vineyard, for an outdoor tasting among the vines featuring some of the estate's highest-scoring wines.

TASTING AT ZUCCARDI, PIEDRA INFINITA

Voted the World's Best Winery three times in a row, Zuccardi in the Uco Valley is an architectural masterpiece and home to one of the most forward-thinking families in wine. Our visit includes a tour of their new iconic winery, where we will have the pleasure of tasting some of the top wines produced in Argentina, followed by a lavish multi-course lunch.

CASA DE UCO VINEYARDS & WINE RESORT

Nestled at the foothills of the mighty Andes Mountains and surrounded by vineyards offering endless panoramic views, Casa de Uco Vineyards & Wine Resort pays homage to the natural splendor of the Uco Valley. Spread across 320 hectares / 790 acres in the heart of the valley, the architecture seamlessly blends with the surrounding landscape. After checking in at Casa de Uco upon arrival, you'll have free time to relax before a light dinner.

CORAZÓN DEL SOL

Just across the road from Casa de Uco, Corazón del Sol is the Argentine passion project of Dr. Madaiah Revana, founder of Napa's acclaimed Revana Family Vineyard. Working in partnership with Argentina wine pioneer Santiago Achaval, the winery is truly one of the hidden gems of Los Chacayes, with silky, savory Malbecs and an innovative focus on Rhône varieties. We'll cap the day with a casual evening at the winery, sampling their critically acclaimed wines alongside fresh empanadas and local fare.

ITINERARY | DAY 3

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 24TH - REACHING THE HEIGHTS OF THE UCO VALLEY

11:00 AM - MEET GUIDES AND DEPART

LA MORADA

Our visit will begin with a cooking class on empanadas, a classic savory stuffed pastry that is a staple in Argentine cuisine. After mastering the art of empanada-making, we move on to a walk-around tasting of different producers from the Los Chacayes area of the Uco Valley. Winemakers will be on hand to present their wines and to discuss the art of crafting wine in this vast and unique region. We'll enjoy an al fresco vineyard lunch as you savor the wines and conversation. This is an excellent opportunity to immerse yourself in Argentine gastronomic culture.

View La Morada >

SALENTEIN

Founded in 1998, this beautiful, modern winery harvests its grapes from altitudes as high as 1,700 meters above sea level – among the highest in Mendoza. Where Malbec is the liquid gold of Mendoza, Salentein stands out amongst the crowd with their restrained and elegant Pinot Noir and Chardonnay, sourced from these cooler high-altitude vineyards. Our tour and tasting are led by winemaker Jorge Cabeza, followed by passed canapés.

ITINERARY | DAY 4

THURSDAY, MARCH 25TH - THE LEGENDS OF LUJÁN DE CUYO

MORNING AT LEISURE

Enjoy the peace of the Uco Valley and gorgeous estate of Casa de Uco with a relaxed start to the day. Take advantage of activities included in your hotel stay, including a horseback ride around the property, walk through the vineyards, or indulge in the spa. At 10:00am, we'll gather for an optional mate session, a hands-on introduction to Argentina's national tea-like beverage.

Checkout and depart hotel at 11:00am.

TASTING AND LUNCH AT VIÑA COBOS

Often called the “Malbec whisperer,” Paul Hobbs is a visionary who has helped shape modern winemaking around the world. His career began at Robert Mondavi Winery where he helped launch Opus One, the groundbreaking Napa-Bordeaux joint venture with Château Mouton Rothschild. In 1999, when Paul co-founded Viña Cobos he helped redefine the global perception of Argentine Malbec. Alongside lunch, you'll enjoy an intimate tasting of Viña Cobos, some of the most collectible and critically acclaimed Malbecs in the world.

View Viña Cobos >

After our visit to Viña Cobos, we'll return to Mendoza to check-in to the Park Hyatt, our home for the final night of the tour. The remainder of the afternoon is yours to enjoy at leisure before this evening's dinner.

DINNER AT CASARENA

Experience the essence of Luján de Cuyo's terroir at Casarena, renowned as the guardians and interpreters of the region. Enjoy their exceptional single vineyard range during a lavish multi-course dinner, exploring the diverse sub-regions of the area. Casarena is ranked as a second growth of Argentina by Tim Atkin MW, with some of the top Cabernet Franc and Cabernet Sauvignon in the country.

ITINERARY | DAY 5

FRIDAY, MARCH 26TH – THE GRAND FINALE

10:00am Depart Hotel

We had a big night so there is time to sleep in before setting out on our final day with a return to Luján de Cuyo and a visit to Argentina's most iconic winery. If you haven't made prior arrangements with the resort to extend your stay, you will need to check-out this morning.

CATENA ZAPATA

Did we save the best for last? Arguably. If Argentina is synonymous with Malbec, then we have Nicolas Catena to thank for showing the world that Argentina can produce world-class, premium Malbec-based wines. We begin our visit at Catena's iconic, meso-American pyramid inspired estate. We will be led through the history of this revolutionary bodega and focus on the subtle variations of Malbec in the Catena portfolio. Our visit will continue with lunch at their newly created restaurant, Angélica, which was just awarded a Michelin star. It's the perfect end to a perfect week.

5:30PM

After lunch, we'll return to Mendoza, with our first stop at the Park Hyatt around 4:30pm for guests staying on. The final night is not included in the tour, but you're welcome to extend your stay by reaching out to the hotel directly. We'll then continue to the airport, arriving around 5:30pm for guests with onward flights to Santiago or Buenos Aires.
